Fit 4 Life

PARTICIPANT CONSENT FORM

The Center for Successful Aging (CSA) is housed within the new Kinesiology and Health Science (KHS) building at California State University, Fullerton (CSUF). The Director of the CSA is Koren Fisher, Ph.D. Through the Center's educational, research, and service activities, it has as its mission the promotion of health, vitality, and well being in later years. The Fit 4 Life class is taught in the Lifespan Wellness Center in the KHS building by trained graduate students or graduates of the Gerokinesiology program at CSUF.

I understand that:

- (a) The purpose of the fitness classes is to train students and to study factors related to healthy aging.
- (b) The Fit 4 Life classes meet for 12 weeks (twice/week for 75 minutes). Each class will be instructed by trained personnel/students with extensive education and experience in exercise science and aging. The class consists of a 10-minute warm-up, followed by three 20 minute stations, including aerobic, strength and mobility/flexibility training. The class ends with a 5-minute cool down.
- (c) Prior to starting the training program, it will be necessary to obtain a medical clearance and to complete a medical activity questionnaire. In addition, my participation in a series of functional fitness assessments necessary to help individualize my exercises and provide a safe and effective program. Participation in the class is completely voluntary, and participants are free to discontinue participation at any time.
- (d) Because a longitudinal study is being conducted, it is necessary to connect my name with assessment scores and questionnaire information, however, the codes will be kept confidential.

- (e) The risks associated with the classes are minimal but the exercises performed may cause some acute and delayed muscle soreness and physical fatigue. If participants experience any physical discomfort (chest pain, leg pain, muscular discomfort, etc.) during the class they should immediately inform the class supervisor.

- (f) If I am accidentally injured during the classes, I understand that the class instructor will offer immediate first aid (if needed), but will be unable to offer me treatment. If injured, I will be responsible to seek treatment with my own physician.
